

HAMPTON INSTITUTE ENROLLMENT IS 873

Trustees Authorize Four-Year Collegiate Normal Course for Teachers.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
HAMPTON, Va., June 3.—Dr. James E. Gregg, president of Hampton Institute, in his recent report to the board of trustees, of which Chief Justice Taft is the president, stated that the number of students in the boarding department, enrolled to February 1, was 873 (boys 553 and girls 320). The distribution of these students follows:

Academy, including preparatory class, 432; Agricultural School, 25; Business School, 32; Home-Economics School, 45; Normal School, 24; Trade School, 252.

On January 30, 1922, the Hampton board of trustees voted to authorize a four-year collegiate normal course, to prepare colored men and women to qualify as high school principals and supervisors. The Virginia Department of Education has given its approval, and for the proper completion of this work the degree of Bachelor of Arts in Education will be given.

Meet Demand for Farmers. To meet the demand for trained agricultural leaders for colored farmers, Hampton Institute now offers a standard four-year collegiate course which leads to the degree of Bachelor of Science in Agricultural Education.

This development was foreseen by General Samuel Chapman Armstrong, who founded Hampton Institute in 1868.

The academy is the fitting school for the Normal School, the Agricultural School, the Home-Economics School, and the Business School. It is recognized as a standard high school by the Virginia Department of Education.

The academy program of studies, however, is not confined to manual training and the home-making arts. It definitely maintains, says Doctor Gregg, "the variegated, yet unified, discipline of head, heart and hand which General Armstrong preached and practiced."

Many Trades Taught. The trades taught at Hampton Institute include automobile mechanics, blacksmithing, bricklaying and plastering, cabinetmaking, carpentry, machine work, painting, printing, shoemaking, plumbing, tailoring, and wheelwrighting.

The Hampton Institute Trade School last year filled 1,242 orders, which were shipped to sixteen States. The 1921 Summer School for Colored Teachers, held at Hampton, enrolled 67 men and women from seventeen States. Virginia furnished 187 and North Carolina 166.

The ministers' conference enrollment was 256 from sixteen States and nineteen denominations.

The Whittier Training School, which is the practice school for Hampton Institute, has enrolled 422 pupils.

The Y. M. C. A. at Hampton has a membership of 559; the Y. W. C. A., 229.

Graduates Obtain Positions. Last year Hampton was asked to recommend 15 graduates for positions. In the 157 county training schools of the South, Hampton is now furnishing eleven principals, eight teachers of vocational agriculture, 8 home-economics teachers and thirty-one other teachers.

Hampton enrolled last year 2,062 students—Boarding Department, 573; Summer School, 631; and Whittier Training School, 858.

Mrs. John S. Kennedy has given Hampton a new dormitory for girls, costing about $100,000, in memory of her husband, George Foster Peabody. It is given from the Palmer Fund, an attractive trustees' house. The Hampton graduates and former students have given Armstrong Field—a modern athletic field, which when completed will cost $50,000.

WOMEN AT U. OF N. C. PLAN CELEBRATION

Occasion Is Twenty-Fifth Anniversary of Co-Ed Establishment.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
CHAPEL HILL, June 3.—Women students of the University of North Carolina, past and present, are preparing for a big celebration at commencement, two weeks hence. The occasion is the twenty-fifth anniversary of the establishment of co-education here.

The triumphal entrance into Chapel Hill of Mrs. Robert L. Gray, of Durham, this June, will be very different from her arrival in 1897, when, as Miss Mary McKee, she registered as the first woman student.

Now she is to be welcomed as one of the most honored guests of the university. Then she was well, she was greeted in friendly enough fashion face to face, but her presence was known upon as a dangerous threat against the ancient privileges of the male.

Dire prophecies that education would have upon the university, wise old men of 19 and 20 were sure that it would weaken and well-nigh ruin the old place.

246 Studied at College. There have been 246 women registered here since the first one, twenty-five years ago. Their prevalence about the campus is taken as a matter of course. Not that there are some grumblers. There are some students who made it known now and then that they would like to sweep the place clean of all the admitted inhabitants. But they who are about the campus, with his hand and face the ocean tide recede. With sixty-two women on the campus, education is firmly entrenched—here to stay.

There are pretty definite plans afoot for a women's building. The money for it is not available yet, but it is regarded as one of the chief needs of the university, and the hope is freely expressed that the Legislature at its next session will make provision for it. The site most frequently spoken of, for such a structure, is the space that alumni know as Battle's Grove, just east of the campus.

The present "Co-Ed House" as it is called, is a residence taken over by the university. It is here that women students will have their banquet on the evening of Alumni Day, Tuesday, June 12. Mrs. Gray is to be toastmistress.

Brief, informal talks by alumnae are promised by the program committee. The home-comers will tell of the early days of co-education and of what some of the university alumnae have been doing since leaving here. In return, students now at the university will inform the home-comers of conditions as they are today. And they will all talk of the long-cherished dream of the women's building. That is what they are all most interested in just now.

At the general alumni luncheon on June 13 there will be a special table reserved for women.

Los Angeles, Cal., writes: "I have been using your Cream and Soap for some time. I have never found anything so good as Buttermilk Cream and Soap. For the cracked skin on my face and neck, and for the itching of my scalp, I could have procured this from my druggist, but I did so want to tell you how much I appreciated and enjoyed their use."

No woman would wish to be bothered with the itching and burning of her face and neck, and for the cracked skin on her face and neck, and for the itching of my scalp, I could have procured this from my druggist, but I did so want to tell you how much I appreciated and enjoyed their use."

Don't hurt a bit. Drop a little "Freezone" on an aching corn, instantly that corn stops hurting, then shortly you lift it right off with your finger. Your druggist sells a tiny bottle of "Freezone" for a few cents, sufficient to remove every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the calluses, without soreness or irritation.—Advertisement.

THIS WEEK'S BEAUTY HELP

It is not necessary to shampoo your hair so frequently if it is entirely and properly cleansed each time by the use of a really good shampoo. The easiest to use and quickest drying shampoo that we can recommend to our readers is one that brings out all the natural color of the hair and may be enjoyed at very little expense by dissolving a teaspoonful of cantharide, which can be obtained from any druggist, in a cup of hot water. This makes a full cup of shampoo liquid, enough so it is easy to apply it to all the hair instead of just to the top of the head. This, when rubbed into the scalp and on to every strand of hair, chemically dissolves all impurities. It is very soothing and cooling in its action, as well as beneficial to both scalp and hair. After rinsing out the lather so created, you will find the scalp is fresh, clean and free from dandruff, while the hair dries quickly and evenly, developing a bright luster and a soft fluffiness that makes it seem very heavy.—Adv.

Hot Weather Shoes

Much of the discomfort of a hot day is the result of tight clothing and footwear. You may not realize it, but binding, straitlaced shoes are often the "final straw" that brings about serious consequences when the heat has lowered your endurance.

If the weather "shows you up" change to the Cantilever Shoe, recommended by physicians and specialists for comfort and health. It has a FLEXIBLE shank that bends with every step. The muscles move freely. The blood flows healthfully. The arches grow strong. The whole system receives in this new freedom with which you walk.
